Life Skills

- * Acquired knowledge and set goals in eight different project areas including beef, swine, foods, gardening, citizenship, public speaking, leadership, and computers through participation in workshops and experiential learning. (1994-2003) Awarded the high individual in the state contest for the livestock skill-a-thon in 2003 and received the grand champion cookies at State Fair in 1999.
- * Acquired record keeping skills by annually submitting my 4-H record book. With these skills I have been awarded annually a blue award. (1994–2003)
- * Learned personal responsibility by raising and caring for my beef and swine projects. (1994-2003) With my skills, I earned a champion rate of gain award on the county level for my hog in 2001 and I was awarded the grand champion beef showman in 2003.
- * Learned empathy, concern for others, and accepting differences by visiting the elderly at the local nursing home with my 4-H club. When visiting, we would sing songs, play games and share stories with the residents. (1994-2003)
- * Learned how to make decisions and to communicate my placing with oral reasons by participating in Livestock Judging on the county and state level. (1994-2002) Earned a position on the State team in 2002 representing Maryland at the National Contest, placed 18th individually and 9th in oral reasons. I now share my knowledge with others by coaching.
- * Learned to improve my ability to cook and learned about healthy lifestyles by participating in the food project. (1994-2003)
- * Enhanced communication skills by participating in the county, regional, and state public speaking contests. Received champion in both the prepared and radio spot divisions on the county and regional level. (1998-2003)
- * Learned time management and stress management by deciding which 4-H projects to carry and what activities I would be able to attend with my busy schedule. (2000-2003)

* Learned management, planning and organization by serving as a club President in 2003, Vice President in 2002, Treasure in 2001 and Secretary in 2000. Awarded the “I Dare You Leadership Award” in 2002

* Shared the knowledge that I have gained through 4-H with the younger 4-Hers in my club. (2001-2003)

* Learned teamwork, decision making and getting along with others while representing my county on the State 4-H Teen Council. (2002-2003)

* Learned self-discipline, decision making, responsibility, and conflict resolution by serving as a camp tribe leader. (2002-2003)

* Learned self-motivation and self-responsibility by completing the Sandy Park River clean up community service project. Awarded the Maryland 4-H Diamond Clover in 2003.
